BEHAVIOR

In the event that a student behaves in a disruptive or inappropriate fashion in a studio or workshop session, the student shall receive a warning from the program director. In the event that the behavior continues or if a second warning is issued, the student shall be dismissed from the program, at the expense of the student/family, and no refund shall be offered. All students are expected to participate in all daily seminar classes and workshops unless medically excused from an activity.

APPLICATION MATERIALS

Please email this registration form, a cover letter explaining why you'd like to attend ITDP, and a reference letter from a teacher with relevant experience in the Performing Arts, and short self-taped monologue or song (may be content from a previous performance) to ITDPGreece@gmail.com. Please pay tuition deposit by check or via SQUARE link here. If paying by check, please make a note in the email containing the registration materials and mail to: INTERNATIONAL DANCE PROJECT (IDP) 4 Caldwell Road / Waltham, MA 02453.

THEATRICAL PREPARATION

Students will be given supplemental material to prepare and familiarize themselves with for individual classes after the April 15, 2024 admission cut-off. All participants will be expected to have proper dance shoes and clothing that will permit both movement and dance. More information to follow.

RECORDING & PHOTOGRAPHY RELEASE

I give permission for me/the participant to be photographed, video-taped, and/or recorded during the program. This media may be used on the Internet, on TV, in print, and in other media by IDP, ACTS, and by third-party publications to promote the company's business. We acknowledge that the images will be the sole property of IDP/ACTS and/or the individual photographer. IDP/ACTS shall have the right to use the participant's name, likeness, and biographical material for advertising, promotions, and other purposes of its business.

TRAVEL & TRANSPORTATION

Upon acceptance, students will receive the contact information for our flight agent. Students may also book flights independently of our agent.

If participant is under age 18, I agree participant shall be accompanied by a parent/guardian/chaperone over age 21 for the duration of the program.

Name of Chaperone: _____

Full Medical Release, Transportation, and Housing Plan can be found on the 2024 Release Document. This full packet will be sent by May 2024. Students must submit these forms to ITDP, including emergency contact information, medical questionnaire, and additional waivers and releases by June 1, 2024.

Travel insurance is affordable and cost-effective. Due to the recent pandemic, we are requesting that all students obtain medical travel insurance for summer 2024. The student is responsible for providing his or her own health care, medical and accident insurance, however, ITDP can make some recommendations. IDP/ACTS is not responsible for any injury, illness, or accidents incurred en route, while at, or returning from the summer program. Students must be responsible for their own belongings; IDP/ACTS can not assume responsibility for belongings or money that is lost or stolen.

If necessary, Greece, the United States, and/or other countries of passage may require students to provide either proof of COVID-19 vaccination or proof of negative COVID-19 test results within 72 hours of arrival in Greece or prior to returning to the United States. Should this be the case, students are independently responsible for gathering and providing the necessary required paperwork and documentation of either vaccination or test results.

IDP/ACTS shall not be held liable for failure in the event that such failure is caused by or due to "Act of God" or "Acts of Nature," including but not limited to weather, acts or regulations of public authorities, labor difficulties, civil tumult, act(s) of war, strike, epidemic, interruption or delay of transportation services, or any other cause beyond the control of IDP/ACTS.

I hereby agree to all terms and conditions outlined in this document, and I knowingly, freely, and voluntarily waive any cause of action of any kind whatsoever arising as a result of any physical activity from which any liability may or could accrue to International Theatre & Dance Project or its agents.
